

XPOLICE Agent Profile

DOMENIC ZITO

Domenic Zito graduated with Honors from the Richmond School of Commerce Paralegal Program in 1995.

In 1997, Domenic worked as a court clerk at Old City Hall in Toronto for approximately 1 and a half years where he first found his desire to work within the paralegal field. Domenic went on to work at the Superior Court of Justice located at 361 University Avenue in Toronto, where he worked as a staff coordinator.

In 2001, Domenic expanded his work experience at the Ministry of Transportation where he worked as a driver analyst. His legal experience continued when he started working with Worsoff and Associates law office. Working closely with lawyers, Domenic began working as a paralegal, solely dealing with Provincial Offence Matters and various criminal matters as well. As time went on, Domenic opened his own Paralegal Firm specializing in all traffic matters. His knowledge and experience within the courts has grown stronger as the years have progressed.

In January 2008, Domenic became one of the first licensed paralegals under the Law Society of Upper Canada, and joined the X Police team (Toronto Region). Domenic's knowledge and expertise in the legal field has earned him respect among his clients and colleagues alike.
