

XPOLICE Agent Profile

Dora Sousa

York Region

Dora Sousa graduated with Honours from the University of Toronto in 2005 where she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminology, Political Science and English. Throughout her academic years at the University,

Dora became an avid participant in several extra curricular activities and volunteer programs. For two consecutive years Dora became the candidate's aid for the York-Simcoe Federal elections, where her hard work and determination facilitated her becoming the Communications, Advertising and Canvas Co-Chair. Following in her passion for Law, Dora enrolled at CDI College in the Paralegal Communications Course where she was nominated on the Deans List in recognition of her outstanding academic achievements and awarded an Honours Diploma.

After successfully completing a school-work program at XPOLICE in Hamilton, Dora's dedication to hard work and commitment to success allowed her in obtaining a position in the company as a traffic ticket agent. Being confident and dedicated, Dora worked directly with the President of XPOLICE Ivon Fournier learning all the facets of the company's daily operations both within the office and the courtroom. With growing experience, Dora's drive and determination allowed her to move quickly through the ranks and took the opportunity of starting and operating her own XPOLICE office in York Region.

Upon receiving her Licence by the Law Society of Upper Canada, Dora's knowledge and expertise combined with her personal attributes has earned her respect among her colleagues and clients alike. Having become a strong legal advocate, Dora has opened her office in the winter of 2008, where her commitment to her client services allows her to assist them with their out most complex and demanding legal challenges.